

Analyse

consider in detail for the purpose of finding meaning or relationships, and identifying patterns, similarities and differences

The process of analysing

Before analysing:

determine the reason for analysis

Identify

essential parts, elements or features

Find:

- meanings or relationships
- patterns, similarities and differences

Determine

the logic and reasonableness

After analysing:

review the analysis to ensure the reason has been met

Sentence starters

- The elements/features demonstrate ...
- There is/is not a relationship between ...
- Through the use of ... the author implies that ...
- Through this analysis it was shown that ...

