

Understand

to perceive what is meant, grasp an idea, and to be thoroughly familiar with

The process of understanding

Before understanding:

select information
relevant to what is to be understood

Identify

and highlight
concepts,
key words
or phrases

Make connections

between new and
known information

Recognise

and explain the key message in
the information

After

understanding:

check the key
message for clarity

Sentence starters

- The key point in the information is ...
- This became clear because ...
- It can be seen that ... and as a result ...
- The connections that can be made are ...

