

Prep assessment techniques and conditions

English

This document outlines assessment techniques and response conditions that could be used to achieve range and balance within an assessment program. Schools should consider the local context, and the age and capabilities of the students, when selecting appropriate assessment techniques, modes and response conditions.

	Techniques
	Extended response	Observed demonstration
Description	focuses on responding in a detailed way to a task or stimulus for a purpose.	focuses on students demonstrating their knowledge, understanding and skills, in a context that is realistic, playful or routine, as a task is completed. The teacher observes and may interact with the student. Professional decisions are made at a point in time or on an ongoing basis as the teacher views, listens, interprets and records evidence against relevant aspects of the achievement standard.
Learning area advice	Students create short written or spoken imaginative and informative texts that provide evidence of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>responding to or drawing upon texts (including literary texts) read, viewed or heard</li> <li>sharing thoughts and preferences.</li> </ul>	Students apply knowledge, understanding and skills, that can be observed (seen, heard, interpreted and recorded) and may provide evidence of developing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>reading</li> <li>interacting, listening and speaking</li> <li>writing</li> <li>creating.</li> </ul> Teachers make professional decisions at a point in time or on an ongoing basis regarding how to collect evidence of students' learning which may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>digital recordings</li> <li>annotated photographs</li> <li>annotated checklists</li> <li>teacher notes.</li> </ul>
