Context

In this unit, you have explored contemporary public conversations playing out in media texts, and examined the ways different texts construct perspectives of the same issue to invite particular reactions in their audiences.

You have also focused on spoken persuasion strategies, including ways to persuade a specific audience through reasoned argument.

It is now time for you to respond to the conversation about a contemporary social issue by constructing your own persuasive argument that adds to the public dialogue about the issue.

As a member of the student body, you are called to apply to the Young Voices Speak Out vodcast or podcast to feature in an episode about issues that matter to students.

Task

As a concerned student speaking on the Young Voices Speak Out vodcast or podcast, you have been asked to construct, script and deliver a spoken persuasive argument that adds to the current public dialogue about an issue of your choice.

To do this:

- choose a contemporary contentious issue that has appeared in the media recently. Issues of contemporary social relevance may be drawn from broader topics, e.g. gender, power, race, religion, age, class and sustainability
- present a contention or thesis in relation to the chosen issue
- generate your own argument that adds to the public dialogue about the issue (after prior critical engagement with media texts about the issue)
- decide whether you will present your spoken response in the form of a vodcast or podcast, and ensure you carefully select complementary features (such as images or sound effects) to suit your particular mode of response and audience
- employ rhetorical and persuasive strategies to position your audience to accept the perspective offered in your response.

Checkpoints

- ☐ Term 1 Week 1: Check topic with teacher.
- ☐ Term 1 Week 4: Submit written draft component through Turnitin.
- ☐ Term 1 Week 4: 1 minute of spoken draft delivered in class time.
- ☐ Term 1 Week 5: Submit written draft to Turnitin and video file to teacher.

Authentication strategies

- You will each produce a unique response by selecting a topic that is of personal interest to you and checked with your teacher.
- You will be provided class time for task completion.
- Your teacher will observe you completing work in class.

- Your teacher will collect copies of your response and monitor at key junctures.
- Your teacher will collect and annotate a written draft.
- You will deliver at least one minute of your draft in the spoken mode in class time.
- You must acknowledge all sources.
- Your teacher will ensure class cross-marking occurs.
- You will use Turnitin to submit the written component of your draft and final copy.

Scaffolding

Your vodcast or podcast should show an understanding of the relationship between audience, purpose and context, and the power of a speaker to persuade through mode-appropriate features.

It should include:

- a clear contention or thesis on the issue
- a series of points to support the contention, employing logical reasoning and development
- evidence of engagement with the public conversation about the issue playing out across media texts
- awareness of the Young Voices Speak Out vodcast or podcast audience in the selection and synthesis of material, and the use of persuasion
- spoken and gestural features appropriate to your vodcast or podcast, including complementary features (such as digital components or sound if appropriate and relevant).
