General instructions

- This is an examination with 2 sections.
- The conversation and discussion will be live and will be assessed via an online platform in the week beginning (DD) October.
- The assessment will be recorded for quality assurance purposes.
- This examination is worth 25% of the mark for this subject.
- Respond in Arabic.

Section 1: General conversation

- This section has a working time of up to 7 minutes.
- It involves a general conversation between the student and the examiner/s about the student's personal world and their interactions with the Arabic language and culture as a learner.
- Students may support their personal reflections by referring to any of the relevant topics studied in class across Unit 3 'Our society; culture and identity' and Unit 4 'My present, my future'.

Section 2: Focused discussion

- This section has a working time of up to 8 minutes.
- For this focused discussion, students are required to choose a topic to discuss from Unit 3 or Unit 4 subject matter, and must bring with them a supporting visual stimulus related to their topic.
- During the discussion, students will:
  - explore aspects of the topic, including information, ideas, opinions and experiences.
  - construct meaning related to Unit 3 or Unit 4.
  - structure and synthesise information to justify opinions.
