EDUCATION STATEMENT

This statement gives the Queensland Studies Authority’s assessment of the general level of education obtained by the applicant as evidenced by interstate or overseas education documents compared with Queensland levels of primary or secondary education.

This statement:
- does not represent a new certificate or diploma
- does not imply that the applicant holds the target qualification
- does not give any claim to a position or trade
- does not guarantee admission to an educational institution
- does not guarantee or endorse the authenticity of the submitted qualifications
- does not indicate that the applicant has satisfied the requirement of “passing” the target qualification or certain subject prerequisites
- is provided as a service for job applicants who have undertaken their primary and/or secondary education in a system other than the Queensland system of education.

Name: NAME

Educational background:
The following documentary evidence of educational achievement was presented:

Explanation:
Level: The General Certificate of Secondary Education (Ordinary Level) issued by Edexcel, United Kingdom in 2001 can be regarded as generally comparable to the completion of Year 10 level studies in Queensland.

The General Certificate of Education (Advanced Subsidiary Level) issued OCR, United Kingdom in 2002 can be regarded as generally comparable to the completion of Year 11 level studies in Queensland.

The General Certificate of Education (Advanced Level) issued by AQA, United Kingdom in 2003 can be regarded as generally comparable to the completion of Year 12 level studies in Queensland.

Grades: It is the applicant’s responsibility to provide information on the grading system.

Subjects: The Queensland Studies Authority does not assess the equivalence of individual subjects.

SIGNATURE
NAME
POSITION, UNIT/BRANCH