Reference materials

Teachers are encouraged to use a range of reference materials throughout the course of study.

Text and reference books

A wide variety of texts and resource materials can be used as sources of information about Graphics. Book suppliers and publishers are able to provide information regarding current publications.

Websites

Many websites can be used to enhance a course of study in Graphics, and these often include useful resources and links. Some particularly useful sites include:

- Australian Graphic Design Association <www.agda.com.au>

Periodicals

Journals and periodicals provide current and relevant information. Journals and periodicals related to Graphics include:

- Architectural Review Australia
- Architecture Australia
- Green
- Habitus
- Houses
• IDPURE — the Swiss magazine of visual creation: graphic design / typography
• (Inside) Australian Design Review
• Landscape Architecture Australia.

School librarians should be able to help identify and locate other useful periodicals.

Organisation and community resources

A variety of government and community organisations can provide expertise, advice, resources and information to assist in constructing and implementing a course in Graphics. Some of these organisations include:

• Australian Graphic Design Association <www.agda.com.au>
• Australian Institute of Landscape Architects <www.aila.org.au>
• Design Institute of Australia <www.design.org.au>
